for the Small to Medium Office

Healthcare IT News At your healthcare facility, what percentage of a complete patient record still exists outside the EMR in the form of paper documents and digital files?

Scan and Retrieve

- iDocsNOW works within Internet Explorer.
- All that is required is a computer connected to the Web and a TWAIN-compliant scanner.
- Users can easily scan thousands of pages daily into their secure filing cabinets, then safely retrieve them using any computer with Internet access.
- Organized file cabinets make searching by any combination of up to seven unique index values (like batch number or client name) quick and easy.

Optical Character Recognition (OCR)

- OCR technology immediately changes typewritten text to readable and searchable text when the document is scanned in the iDocsNOW system.
- Our OCR technology is 98 percent accurate per character, and allows authorized users to search all files without having to manually index data.
- In seconds, you can pull up a patient name for easy billing.

Annotate

- Clients can use the iDocsNOW Viewer to annotate on images.
- Circle or underline an area with the pencil tool, type a note on the image or 'white out' protected client information before sharing it.
- This is a perfect way to mask confidential information on documents before forwarding them to outside companies.

Print, E-mail & Annotate

- Print and e-mail documents directly from iDocsNOW.
- If one of your clients needs a copy of a charge or EOB, you can have it to them in seconds instead of days.

iDocsNOW Link

- The iDocsNOW Link may be used to access files in iDocsNOW database from outside applications, such as electronic medical record or patient management software.
- The iDocsNOW Link works with virtually all third party applications for quick and easy retrieval from your primary application.

Multiple Filing Cabinets

- While most businesses start with one filing cabinet, you can set up as many as you need.
- Accounting and human resource files can be stored separately from billing files by creating multiple filing cabinets - each with unique passwords and access authorities.

iDocsNOW Security

- The primary focus at iDocsNOW is the security, availability and integrity of our customers' files.
- All customer data is stored at secure, redundant data centers in Tampa and Atlanta.
- 256-bit advanced encryption security (AES) is used at all times to secure stored data and images.
- In addition, you receive a backup CD each month that contains the previous month's data files.
- On a day-to-day basis, you can keep confidential information secure by allowing only employees with rights to access files by managing user access level settings.

Route Documents

- In addition to providing secure client access, users can also route electronic documents to clients or employees worldwide or to third parties for additional processing.

Audit Trail and Compliance

- All activity in the filing cabinet is tracked from login to logout.
- User name, activity and date and time stamps are recorded in the iDocsNOW audit trail and cannot be edited.
- Scanning and storing of documents also helps offices comply with regulations like Sarbanes-Oxley, HIPAA and others.
